DEAR BATTERED WIVES:

DEAR BW: I have teenage spots. How can I cure them? Yours to eternity—

O. NEWT-JOHN

DEAR O. NEWT-JOHN: We recommend you stop going to Discos with greasy Dago tap dancers.

...

DEAR BW: I've tried the vacuum method, but still have not increased the size of my peepee. Yours desperately—

ALFIE NOCOCKS

DEAR ALFIE: Toby tried this method too, but only found it beat, swepted and cleaned it. We suggest an evening with one of the Battered Wives Roadettes.

DEAR BW: I creamed my knickers at your last concert—could this be a sign of things to come? Yours lustfully—

MAGGIE T.

DEAR MAGGIE: Yes, and may we suggest the new disposables, or are you sticking to your old ones?

...

DEAR BW: Since listening to "Uganda Stomp" I've developed lumps on my breast. Could this be cancer?

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: Yes. Five of Idi's wives have also developed similar symptoms—but a full examination backstage at our next gig should clear up your problem.
